COMMUNITY SONG

(To the tune of: "Easter Bonnet")

Oh, we will sing the praises
In sweet and simple phrases
Of that friendliest of places
The ABERCORN CLUB.

Oh, we all love to be there
(When we have paid our fee there)
For all our friends we see there
At the ABERCORN CLUB.

On the tennis courts
You can wear skirts or shorts;
On the green or in the rough there
You must try to do your stuff there;
And when there's a party
We all get so hearty -
For when we go on Saturday
It's just a gay mad-hatter-day
And a carefree what-does-it-matter-day
At the ABERCORN CLUB.

---oooOooo---

GOD SAVE THE KING.
